Personalities . . .

Cheryl Kruko, Nicole Kingren, Teri Pershall, Monica Moore, and Mary Acuna show off their smiles.

Stace Rader gets ready for the catch of the day.

Personalities are a variety throughout Nova! Nova students have different personalities which create spirit in a high school. Nova High School is rich with diverse personalities: enthusiastic extroverts, shy introverts, serious intellectuals, creative artists and musicians, aggressive athletes, class clowns, and well-rounded achievers. The mixing of these personalities shows our school's identity.

Joe Lanspa, Jay King and Kevin Lewis get off the bus with anticipation for another day.

President Sarah Hauss thinks over the problems of student government.

Friends . . .

Kim Kite, Jamie Hopkins, and Brenda Squier ham it up at lunch time.

Cheryl Blankenship, Jenny Riley, and Regan Sherman discuss what they're going to do this Friday.

What are Chris Friesen, Carlene Stratton, and Robin Roberts hiding?

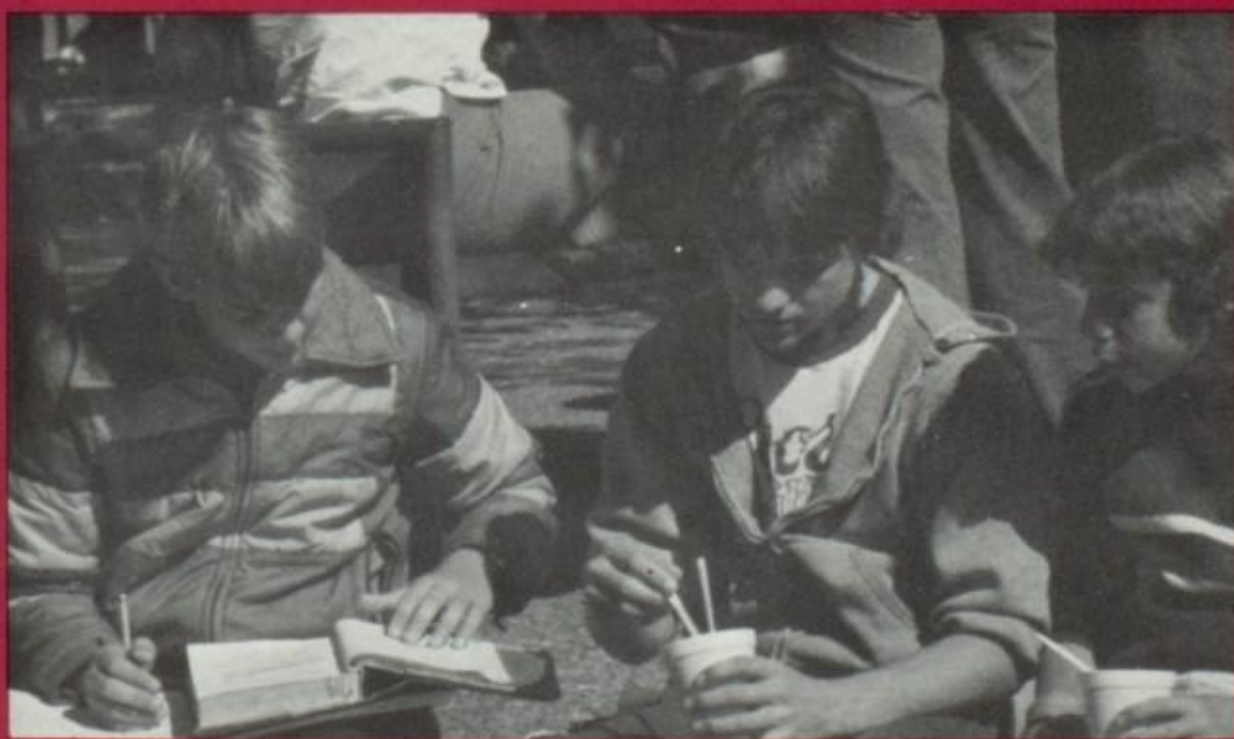

Ramon Fieseler and Steve Mello painfully count all the steps at Nova.

*Cindy,
you're a neat person & nice friend. Have a great summer.
good luck at E.H.S.
See ya next year
your friend
Lara*

A Friend Is: someone who you can trust to tell your innermost secrets to; someone who supports you at all times and never lets you down; someone who tries to cheer you up when you're feeling down and things aren't going well. Nova Panthers know what friends are all about!

Darrin Holman, Nathan Clark, Wayne Seanoa, and Dennis Starky cheer on Nova to victory.

Dan Reed, Kyle Wright, and Chad Hawthorne think lunch is the perfect time to do homework.

Kindly
 You're a really sweet person! I'm glad to have met you.
 May at Easter
 will get a chance to meet you.
 Have a nice
 summer & take care of yourself.
 Love ya man
 I'm gonna miss you

Spirit . . .

Jim Schutte and Steve Senn think Nova is Number One.

Nova girls' Purple Volleyball discuss winning strategy.

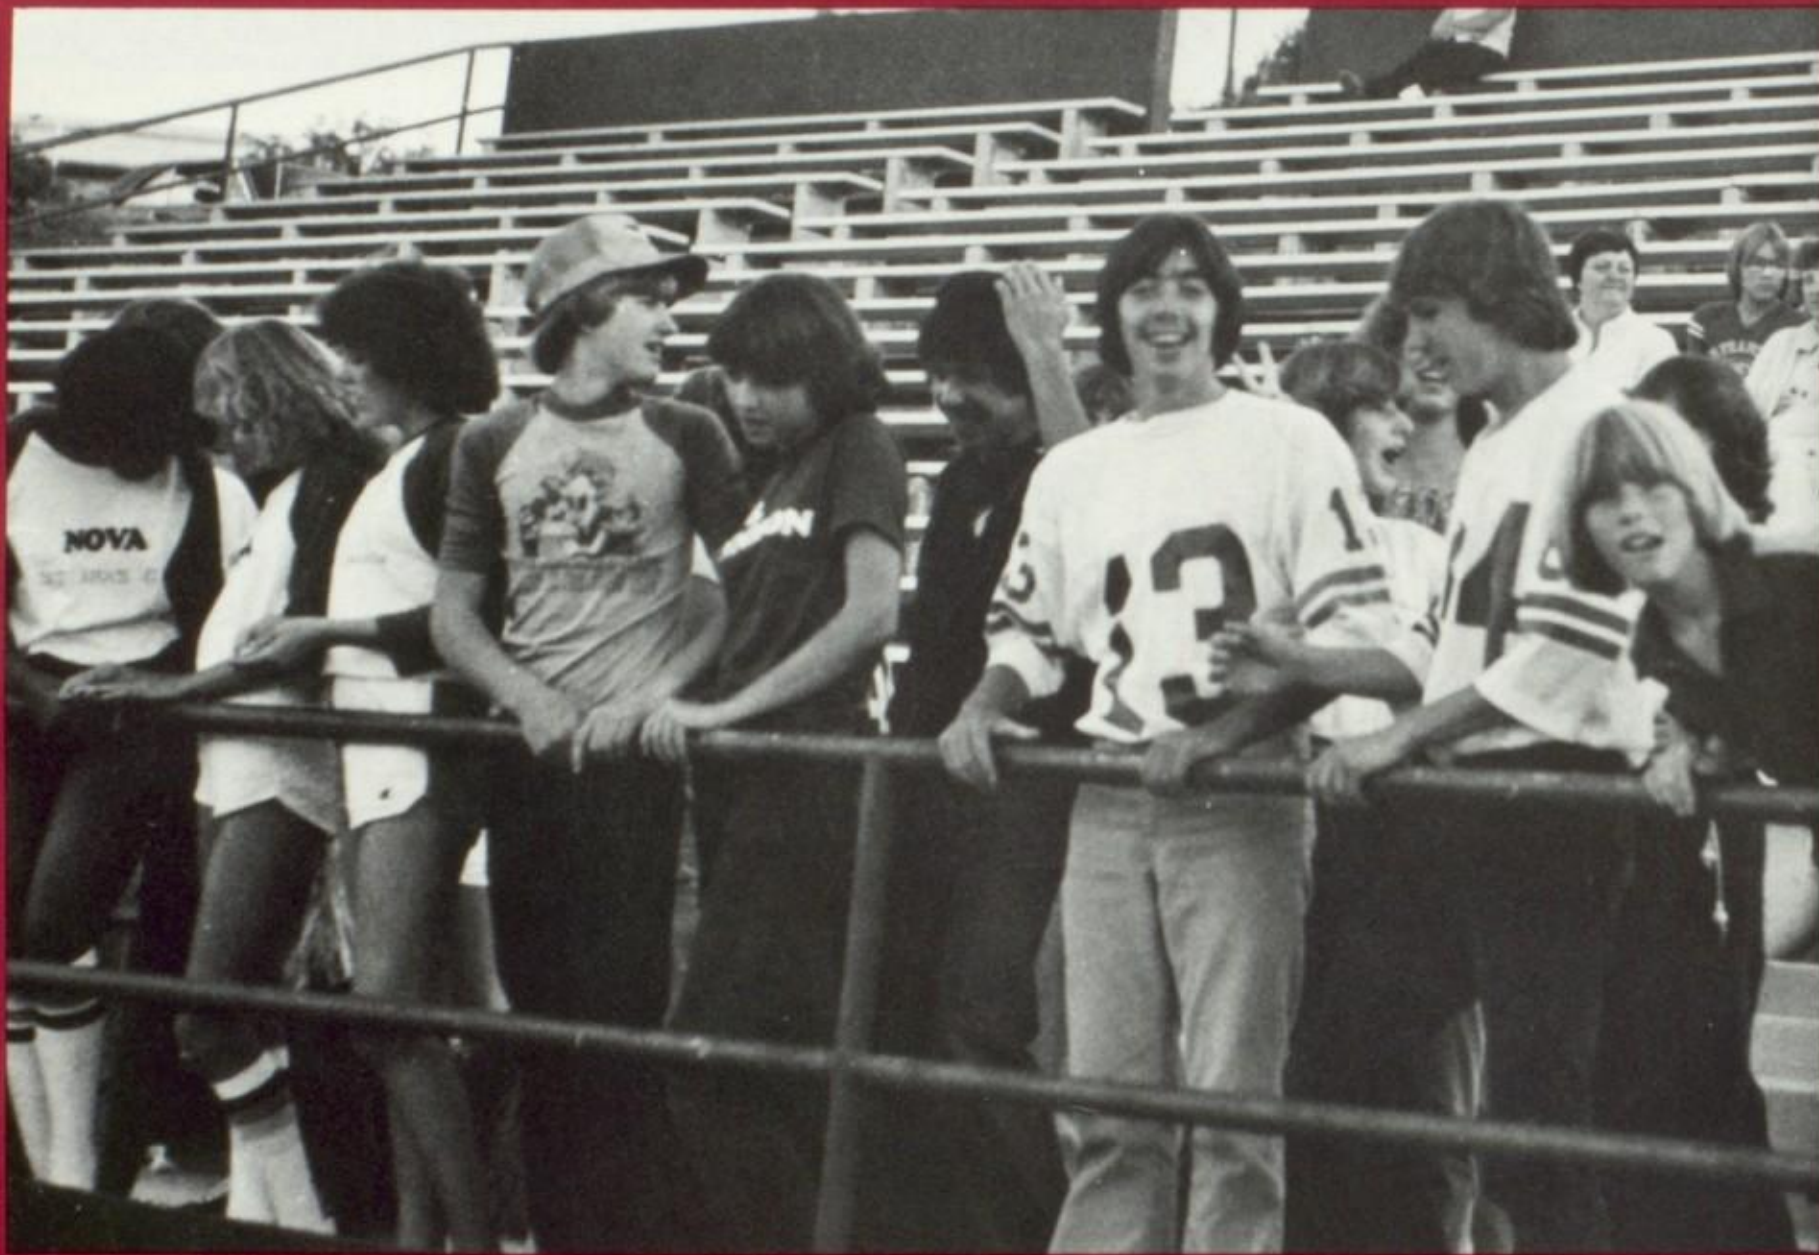

Everyone is involved in their own style of spirit. Spirit is shown by students in social clubs, cheerleading, student government, athletics, and by excited sports fans. The intermixing of all this spirit produces our school's push to win.

Jill Peters, Leanne Linebarger, Cindie Craddock, Kris Hays, and Suzanne Steinberg show Nova's winning spirit!

Involvement . . .

Nova students are definitely not camera shy.

Angela Ellis, Lisa Mark and Stacey Becker wonder what cheer to do next.

Nova students are involved! They are interested in what's going on. Being new to Nova, it was hard to get involved, but Nova students overcame that fear fast and made new friends. Before you knew it, students were joining clubs, trying out for athletics and cheerleading, and running for offices. The excitement of being involved, shown by the Nova students, makes Nova the great school that it is!

Joanne Lawler offers Geri Kikorian a bite of her burrito.

Wendi Davis runs for student body president.

Dixie Clough shows us the look to kill.

*Cindy,
I'm glad I met
you this year and you are really sweet and a good friend
too. Stay up
Keep lots
in touch.

Dedication . . .

Dan Burton gets sidetracked.

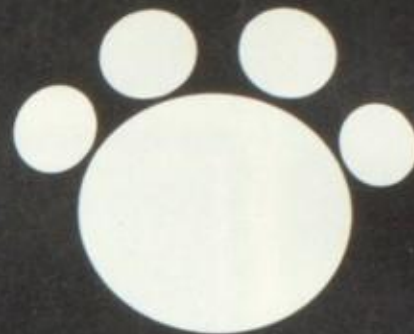

Laurie Farace watches her step.

Nova students will wait through anything for food.

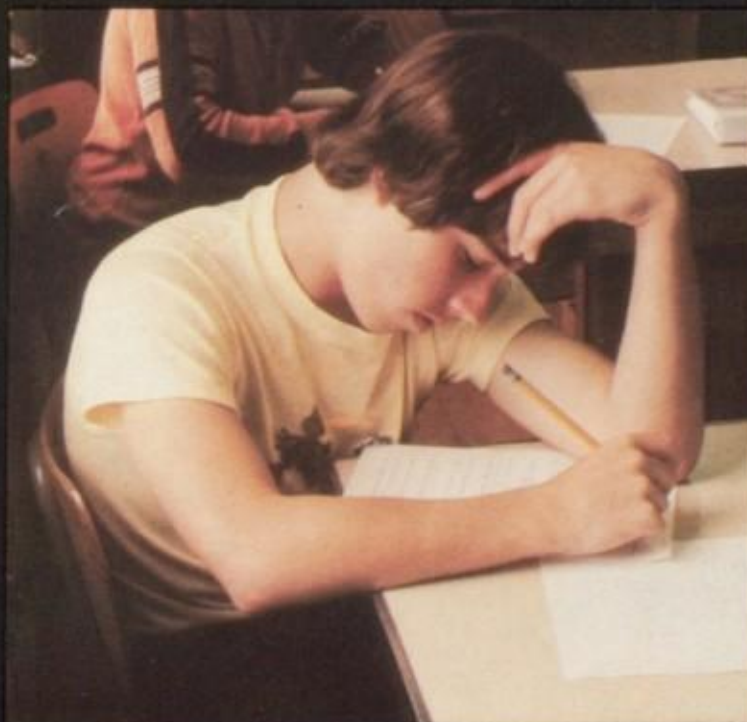

We all notice performances, but few of us recognize the endless hours of preparation they involve. After school, you can see people practicing and perfecting their abilities. People are involved everyday at Nova. Although practice takes a lot of hard work, in the end, dedication always pays off!

Darrin Holman is dedicated to his team.

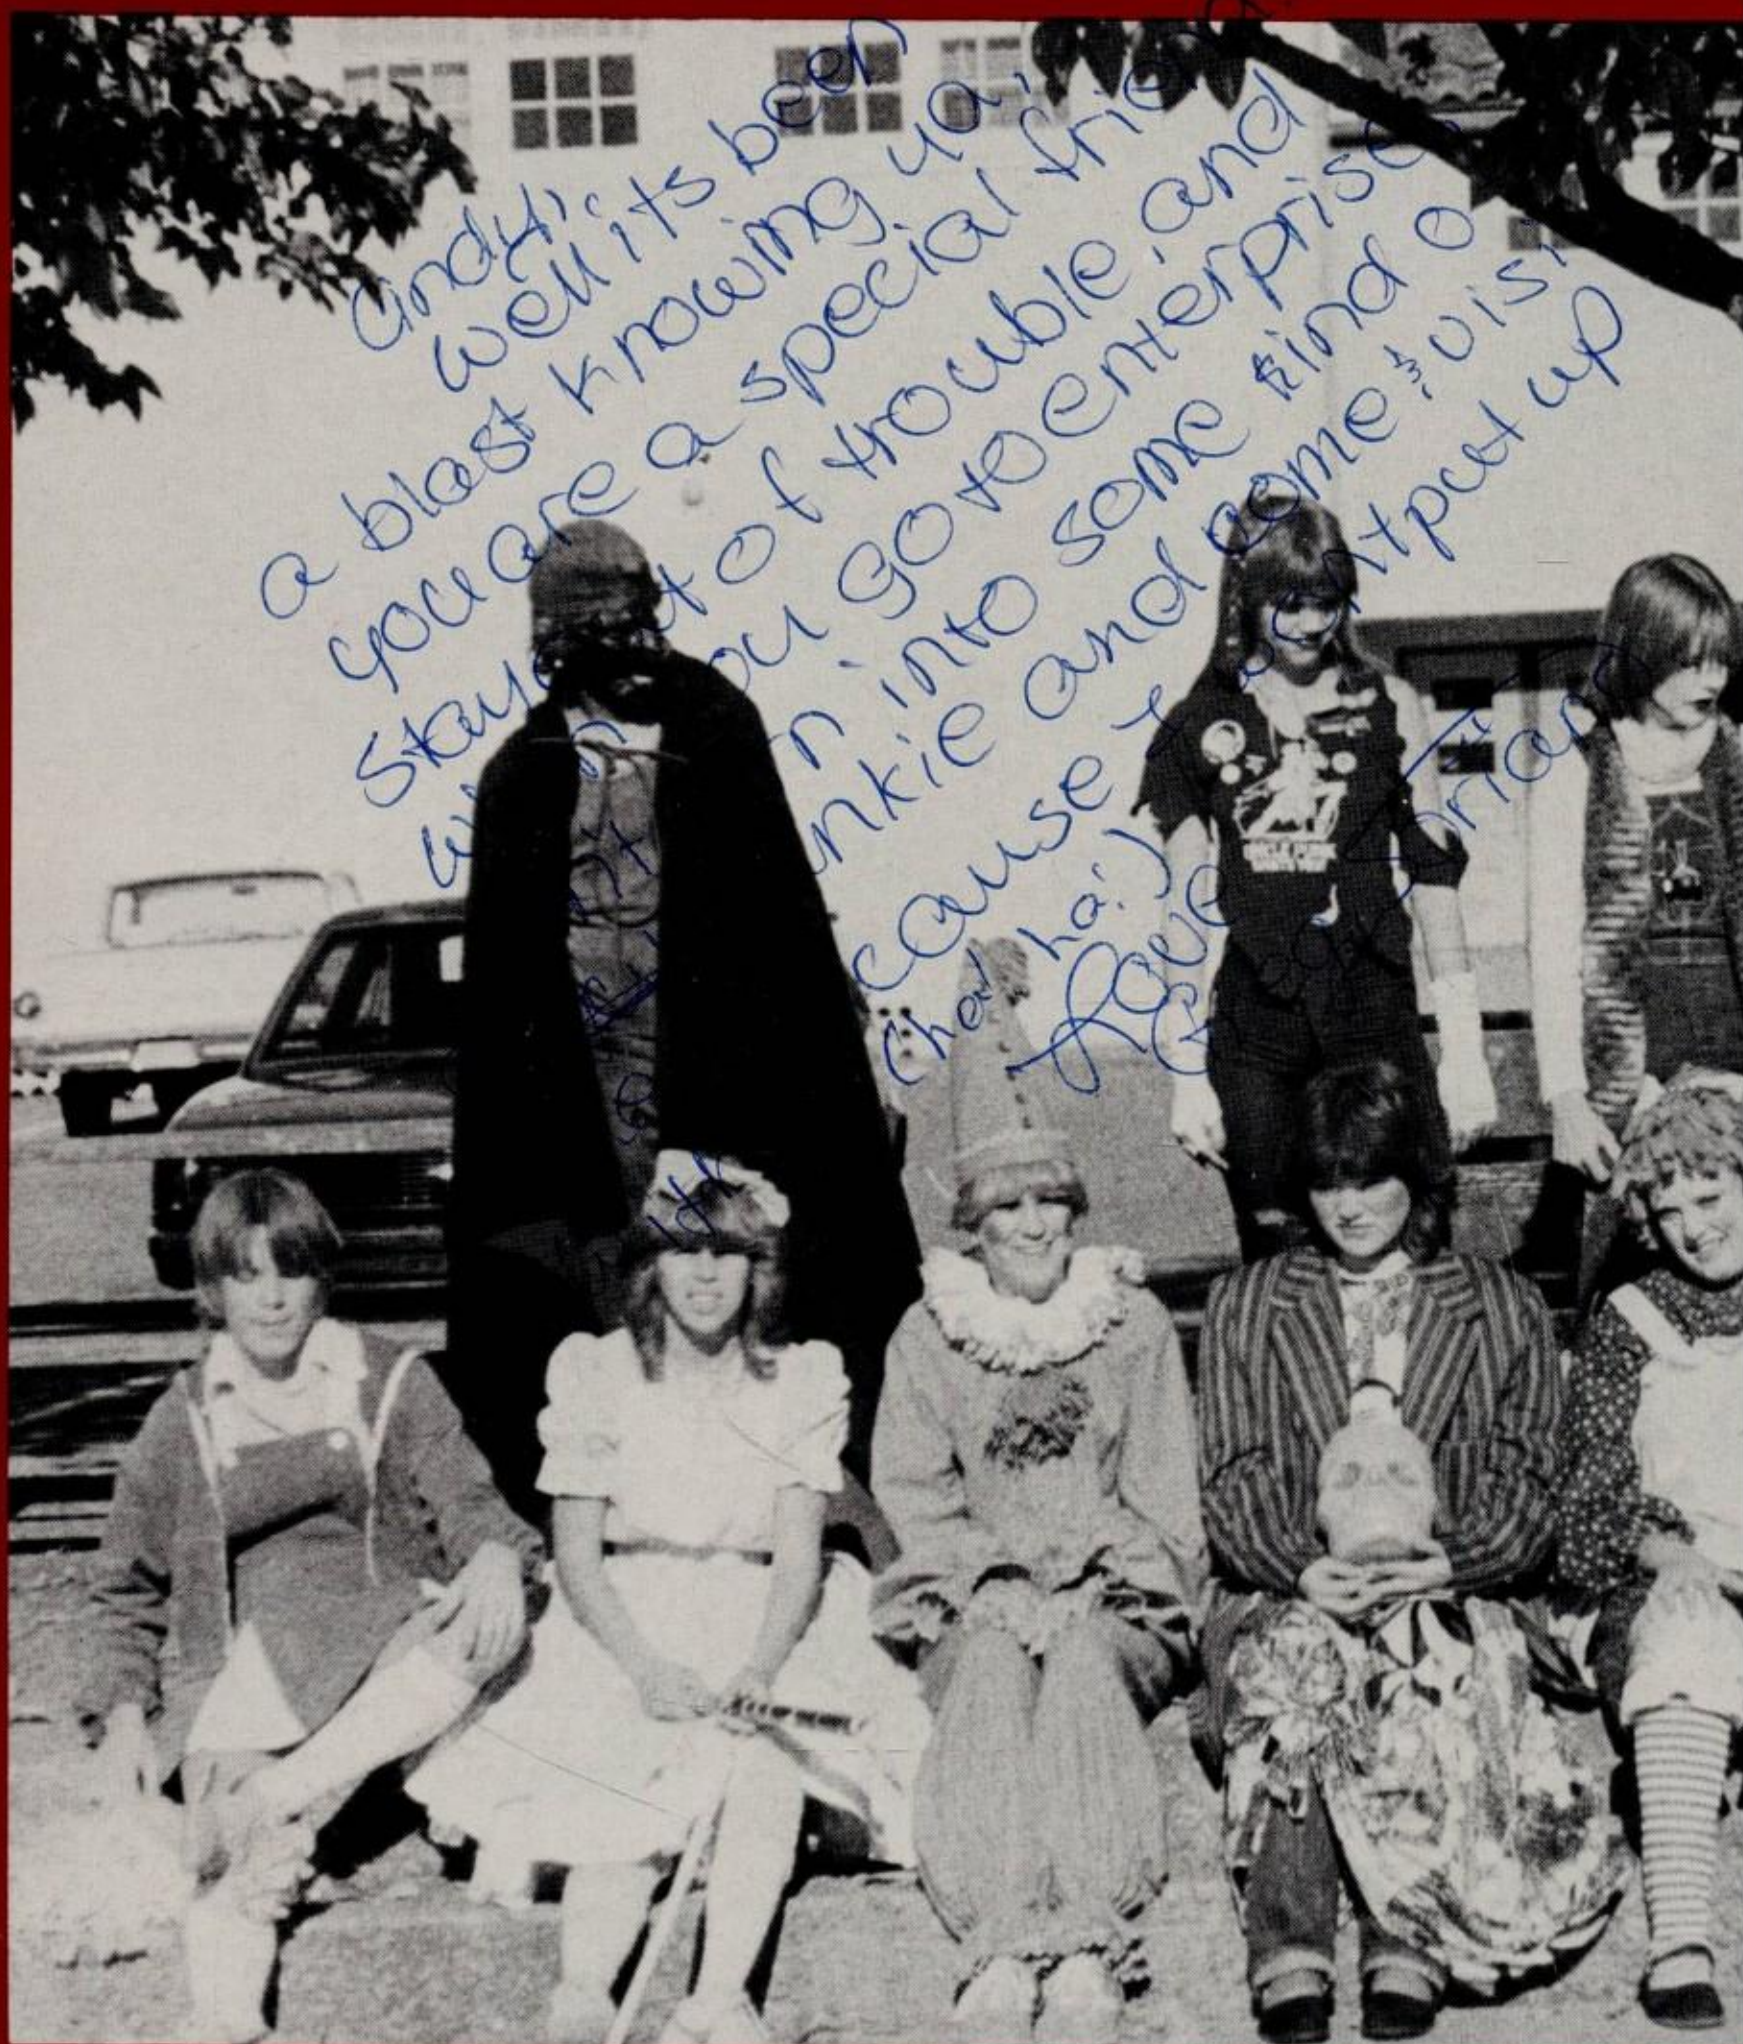

Jessica Tescher and Lisa Swayne go over the days accomplishments.

Student Government Provides Lunch Time Activities

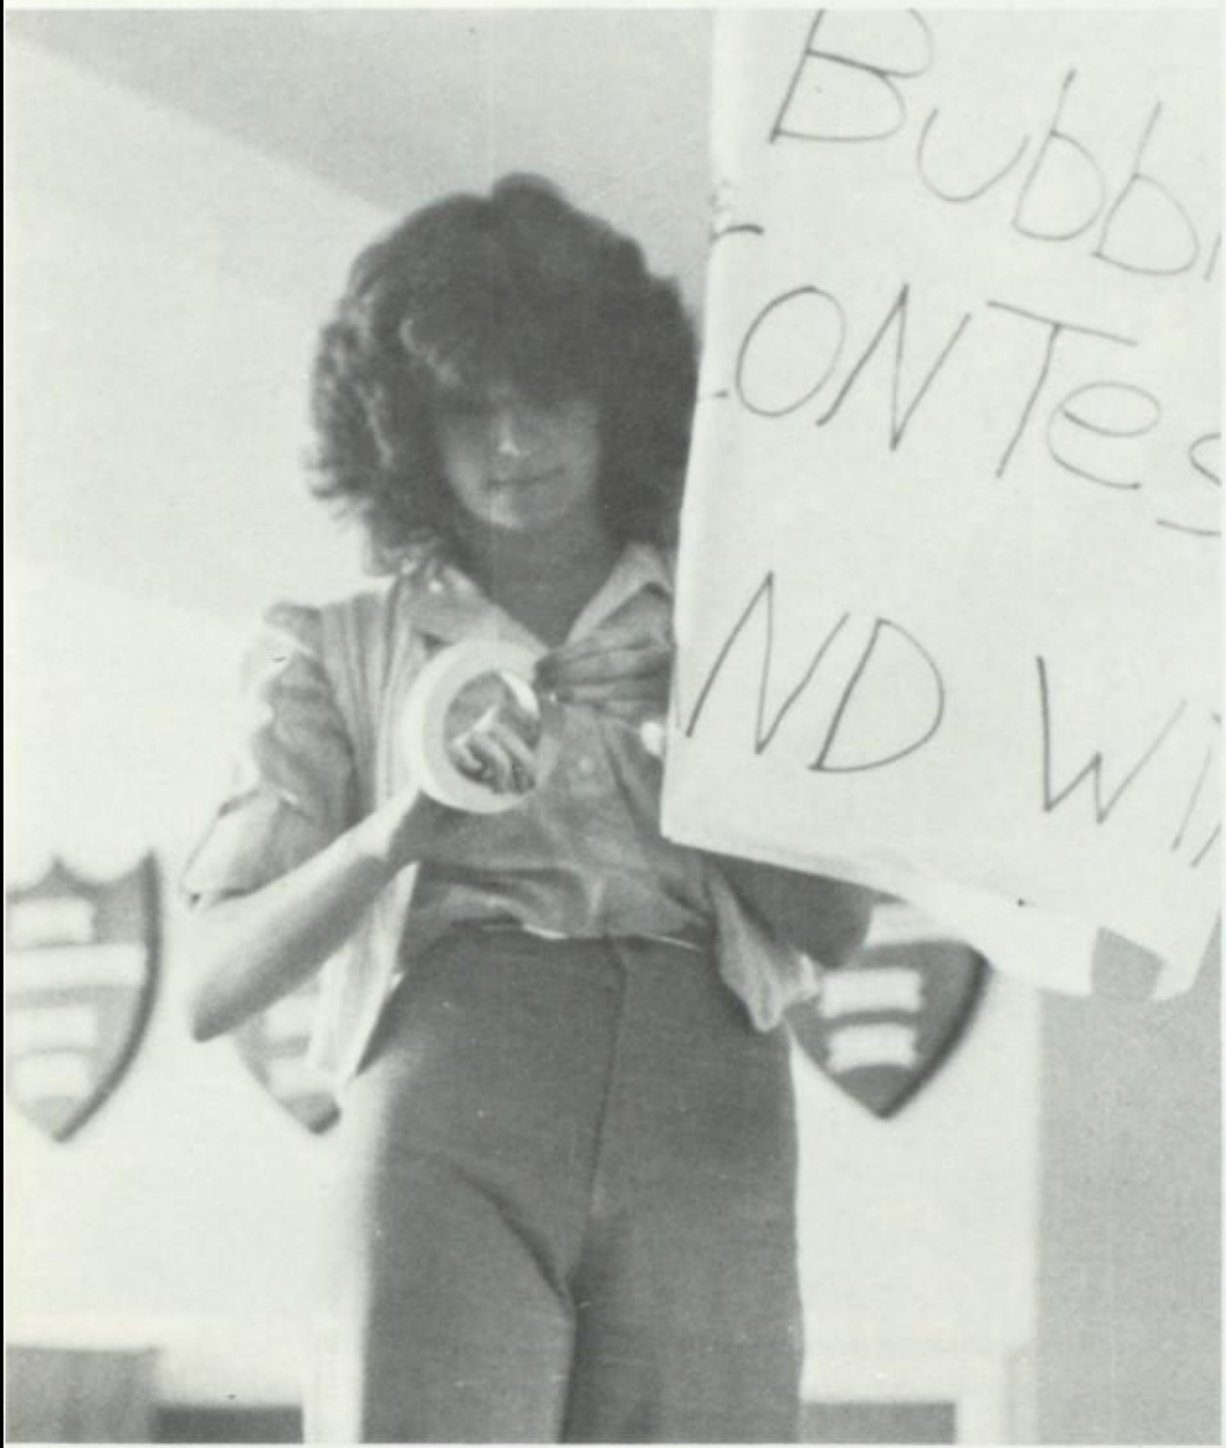

Under the guidance of Mr. Jim Decker, a new class of student government was born. The group was very productive in providing the students with lunch time activities, such as, bubble gum blowing contests, frisbee throws and dress up day contests. The council did a good job keeping Nova number one and making a better school for future students.

Michelle Lemehaute gets frustrated.

Yearbook Staff Works Overtime.

Miss Lewis helps Maura Torres with the typography.

The '82 Nebula is an extraordinary yearbook. This is the first year Nova had a full color opening section, and to pay for it the staff sold extra ads. Ad sales totalled $2,200, the most ever. The top ad salesperson was Kacey Fitzpatrick, who sold $435 worth of ads.

The staff proved to be hard working and dedicated. Before each deadline they stayed after school and spent Saturdays working to finish their layouts on time. The staff enjoyed working with each other and putting the yearbook together, but they were sure happy to quit at the end of the year. Miss Lewis, the yearbook advisor, feels that this yearbook is the most spectacular that Nova has ever come out with.

SNAPPIN' ALL YEAR LONG

Surprise! Your picture is going to be in the yearbook! If you heard this you can bet your picture had been taken by a member of the yearbook photography class, and due to their newly learned skills you can be sure that it will turn out well. To most of the students in this class this was a new experience and a chance to learn how to take good pictures, print and develop them.

Mr. Sehon, the instructor, has played a big part in the role of teaching them what they need to know. He did a good job this year in teaching and said, "They have been a good group, and I hope all my future students and classes are this good."

NEWSPAPER KEEPS STUDENTS UP-TO-DATE

Mike Floriani concentrates only on his newspaper assignment.

The hard-working newspaper staff provided us with a newspaper packed with informative and interesting articles this year. The members did a very good job of covering current and past activities, considering that there were only six members on the staff. The members had many jobs to do to complete each newspaper. For example, they had to decide what to put in each paper, find out facts for the articles, and write headlines and copy. Ms. Patton says that if the class were larger, they would have been distributing three newspapers per semester, but she feels that, for the most part, the staff members did a good job.

MORE THAN JUST CHEERLEADERS . . .

Only fifteen girls get the privilege of experiencing cheerleading at Nova. It takes dedication, spirit, sportsmanship and enthusiasm to maintain this position. They have to spend time getting their uniforms in a hurry, and many hours are put into practicing cheers. The football cheerleaders of 1981 fulfilled all these requirements and did an all around super job!

We're not sneaky enough to catch Leanne Linebarger by surprise!

TOGETHERNESS IS THE KEY TO SPIRIT

The basketball cheerleaders had it all together this year. They were full of spirit at every game. The cheerleaders put forth a tremendous amount of dedication which resulted in organization and unity. They showed they had the ability to promote enthusiasm and project action and spirit. Overall the basketball cheerleaders did a really great job.

IN 1981 MAGAZINE SALES

This year Mr. Slone's second period class won the magazine sales contest. His class raised $2,531. Wendi Davis, of Mr. Slone's class, was the top salesperson. Wendi sold over $430!!! Scott Goetz, also of Mr. Slone's class guessed the mystery of the Clue Cards. When Mr. Decker was asked how the sales went this year, he replied, "The magazine sales were around $3,000 to $4,000 less than last years."

F.H.A. PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

F.H.A. is the Future Homemakers of America. In October, F.H.A. went to Chico for a F.H.A.-Hero kick off. There they learned what the officers of the organization are supposed to do. They also had a car wash, a fashion show, and sold carnations to raise money to go to Los Angeles in April. The group put on the very successful first dance.

NATIVE AMERICANS ENRICH THEIR KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THEIR ANCESTORS.

Native Americans is a group of Nova students with an Indian background. They meet once a month and have guest speakers that talk about Indian heritage. They do beadwork and watch films. The Title IV program has funds every year to help buy gym clothes and shop cards for those that are eligible.

The advisor, Mrs. Wolfin, helps students who are in her program with math, English, and other classes. She works closely with the teachers and counselors to help students keep up their attendance.

FUTURE FARMERS STEER IN

All of the F.F.A. students took either agriculture or horse-husbandry classes taught by their advisor, Mr. Wolford. The officers were sent for training at the college. The F.F.A. students went to a regional meeting in Chico and a state meeting in San Luis Obispo. They also had a Shasta College field day, which was judged by Shasta College. To raise money, some F.F.A. members worked at the Nova football games and at the Sadie Hawkins dance. The people who participated had a pizza party. They went to an awards banquet along with Shasta High, Central Valley, and other high schools in F.F.A. They took the kindergarteners to the farm for halloween pumpkins and "touch week" to pet the animals. They also went to the farm for themselves every Tuesday to work with their animals and to drive the tractor. F.F.A. is to develop leadership, responsibility, and to gain interest in agriculture.

Y.A.C. GOES NUTS OVER NUTRITION

Suzie Hoffman and Christy Johnson, two truly dedicated workers.

Y.A.C. started out this year with a food drive for Thanksgiving dinners for as many families as possible. They succeeded in providing food for three families of Nova students. At Christmas time, they sold carnations to the students and faculty as another fund raiser. Also in December, they decorated the showcase with nutritional information. In February, Y.A.C. went to a regional meeting in Sacramento, California.

During Basketball season, Y.A.C. sponsored a Crazy Legs Contest. A Crazy Legs contest is where the photography classes take pictures of candidates from home-room classes. The pictures are taped to separate jars. The students put pennies in the jars with the best looking legs on it. The jar with the most pennies in it is obviously Mr. or Mrs. Crazy Legs.

DANCE WITH ME

Nova had five dances throughout the year. Different organizations put on dances because they were a great way to make money. Most of the dances were fun and had good turnouts. Disc jockey Mike Dorn did the music for some of the dances. Fast and slow dances were both popular this year.

Drama is a semester class that introduces students to drama to let them decide whether they want to become actors or actresses in future years. The class usually did a mixture of comedies and tragedies. The students in the class learn the art of acting and the fun and hard work of being involved with putting together a play.

This year the drama department presented three one-act plays for the public. Any of the students at Nova were allowed to try out for the plays; they were "A Point of View," by David Campton, "Stranger with Roses," By John Jakes and "Oh What a Tangled Web," by John R. Carroll. The drama teacher, Mr. Southard, produces and directs the plays.

NEW TEACHER PROUD OF SWING CHOIR

The Swing Choir and the Glee Choir sang at their best and made everyone proud of them.

This was Mr. Nigro's first year at Nova and he really was impressed with the Swing Choir. They really performed well. Mr. Nigro was teaching them Gospel and Metrical music; in the second semester, they sang more pop and Broadway.

As for the Glee Choir, Mr. Putnam was pleased with the progress they made. He said they were a good group. They performed well at Shasta College and at the Christmas Concert.

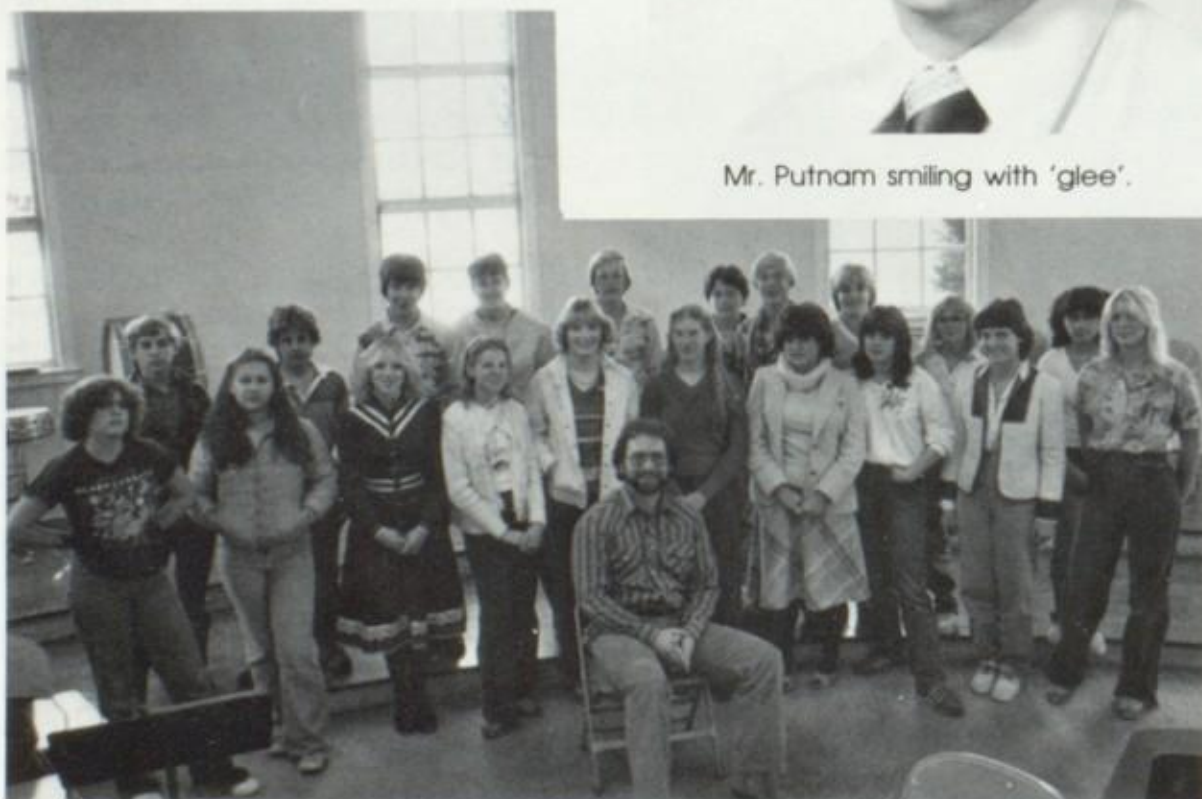

Both choirs did an outstanding job.

BAND PLAYS TO PERFECTION

The Nova Band performed extremely well this year. Mr. Howat was pleased with their enthusiasm and outstanding performance. At the Christmas concert they were at their best. When the band played their magical musical instruments, Nova shined with pride.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Nova's Christmas Concert started the holiday season off on a good note. The concert was on December 18, in the Nova auditorium. It was the year's major production for both the band and the choir. The choir performed traditional holiday songs, as well as several other pieces. The band, under the direction of Ken Howat, played several Christmas numbers and ended with a medley of carols, to which the choir sang.

Director Ken Howat strikes the band into a march.

CHRISTMAS DOORS

All the doors were outstanding and creative. The designs showed that Nova students really know about Christmas spirit. The judging was done by Miss Shannon's art class students, and they judged fairly. The judges looked for originality and how well the designs were constructed.

The winners were:

First Place- Miss Shannon's room 222

Second Place- Mr. Holliday's room 139

Third Place- Mr. Heater's room 137

Fourth Place- Mr. Wagner's room 225

Fifth Place- Mr. Southard's room 127

EXPERIENCING A SLEIGH RIDE THROUGH FASHION

It took Ms. Englert's Modeling and Grooming class three weeks to prepare for this year's fashion show, but the final product was worth it. The show's theme was "A Sleigh Ride Through Fashion," and was held on January 12, at 7:30 p.m. It lasted for about an hour and fifteen minutes. The show drew a crowd of about 250 people. Eighty girls modeled clothes from Village Botique, J. C. Penney, Anita's and eleven other stores.

CROWNING ROYALTY HIGHLIGHTS DANCE

The Sweethearts' Dance was a total smash. It was held in the boys' gym on March 5. The winners of the King and Queen election were announced there; the King was Shel Higgins and the Queen was Laura Cooper. The others nominated were Laurie Farace, Monica Hardy, Cheri Stearns, and Cheryl Mattox for Queen and Henry Townsend, Steve O'dell, Gary Walker, and John Haumann for King. Music was supplied by Mike Dorn. Although there were many rumors about the style of dress for the dance, it was finally decided to be semi-formal. Some girls wore long dresses while other wore pants.

The dance was put on by the Nova Yearbook Photography class, taught by Mr. Jim Sehon. The Sweethearts' Dance could definitely be described as the best dance of the year.

Charlie Talbot enjoys the music, but where's his partner?

Brian Rawls has his own idea of semi-formal dress.

Anne Mory and Gary Reneger enjoy each others company at the dance.

Henry Townsend and Gary Walker look on as Shel Higgins is announced King.

Nova's student body was Organized Chaos. They liked being weird and loved having fun. Nova's students thought of many things to amuse themselves. Student government held some activities during lunch as well. Some of these activities were a pie-eating contest, a bubble gum blowing contest, and a frisbee throwing contest. Some of the more mature students enjoyed playing on the jungle-gym at the Burger King. The games at Nova were almost always chaotic. The cheerleaders, players, and fans all seemed to get rowdy. Overall the 1981-1982 Nova students were the best Nova had ever seen.

Wendi Davis was the winner of the pie-eating contest for fifth period lunch.

Even though the gold cheerleaders were sometimes chaotic, their cheers were still successful.

Cube Invades Nova

In classrooms all over the school, teachers are being driven crazy. These cubes, namely Rubik's Cubes, are becoming more popular at Nova everyday. Students are spending lunchtime, time at home, and even class time trying to get the cube's faces all the same color.

The cubes were invented by Erno Rubik, who holds degrees in architectural engineering and internal design. He teaches at the Applied Arts in Budapest, Hungary.

Other kinds of cubes are the Space Shuttle, the Missing Link, the Snake, and the Pyramid.

STUDENTS PROVE ARTISTIC TALENT AT HALLOWEEN

Nova held a pumpkin carving contest the week before Halloween. There were many entries, but the top three were Hillary Bateman, first place; Scott Goetz, second place; and Kelly Kucera, third place. Hillary used yarn for her pumpkin's hair and a carrot for its nose. Kelly used black olives for her pumpkin's eyes.

GUESS WHO I AM?

Nova had a dress up day the day before Halloween. Students came to school dressed as gypsies, punkers, pigs, and women. The winners of the contest were Shel Higgins, Jennifer Dollard, JoAnn Golenor, Tammy Dennison, and Sean Harraser. Shel dressed up as a lady, Jennifer dressed up as a vampire, Jo Ann dressed up as a pig, Tammy dressed up as a punk rocker and Sean dressed up as a flower child.

CARNATION SALES

This year's flower sales were a blooming success! The flowers were distributed during fourth and fifth periods by YAC members. YAC made $70.00 selling carnations this year. That's the same amount as last year. The money was raised so that they were able to go to the regional YAC meeting in San Jose. Anyone at Nova could send a carnation and a message to someone special for 75¢. Everyone who participated in the sale agreed that it was well worth the money!

WHAT'S IN FROM HEAD TO TOE

This year at Nova, many fads and fashions have come and gone. Some have stayed for months and some were over by the end of the week.

Fashion started at the beginning of the year with the popular Levi 501 blue jeans along with Birkenstocks. Later came the overwhelming popular Vans, which come in various styles. Among the other fads were leg warmers, headbands, and decorated shoelaces.

CHRISTMAS TRUCKS

This is the second successful year Mr. Skelly's woodshop classes have made wooden trucks. The trucks were made at Christmas time for fun and to teach the students about mass production. The trucks were made by groups of students, who each made one part of the truck, and then they they were assembled and each student took one home. Approximately 230 trucks were produced. The trucks that were left were sold for ten dollars each to buy supplies for woodshop. A lot of time and hard work were put into making these trucks; they turned out great!

NEW TO REDDING

This year was special for Redding! New buses were the addition. In November, twenty-two buses were shipped from San Diego to Redding. These buses were named The Ride. There are six routes which cover the Redding area, and pick up people at various times. Redding is overjoyed with the new transportation system.

SNOW BLANKETS NOVA'S GROUNDS

Snow! Snow! Snow! We haven't seen much snow in three years! School closed on January 4, 1982, for a prolonged Christmas vacation, and it snowed again a couple weeks later. Some students still came to school while others stayed home because the roads were slippery and some of the buses, to the areas farther out didn't run. Nova students had a lot of fun when it snowed, but when it came time for a good old-fashioned snowball fight, that was not allowed. Some of the snowball throwers ended up shoveling snow instead of throwing it.

Mike Hobbs shovels poor old Frosty off the steps.

Throwing snowballs is against the rules, Ron Drinnin.

Mrs. Drewek trudges through the snow now on her way to P.E.

Snow adds a majestic touch to Nova's campus.

Kathy Harris and Dena Beyer build us a snowman.

Kathy Harris shows off her finished product.

NEW FACE IN ADVERTISEMENT

Demsher, and Mrs. Joan Pollard demonstrate the power of a panther.

PANTHER POWER

NEW FACE IN ADMINISTRATION CHANGES PROCEDURES

Dr. Joseph Appel is always talking business.

Our principal, Mr. Donald Demsher is very friendly and cooperative. He has shown interest in our sports program and also in the academic activities here at Nova. Working along with Mr. Demsher is our vice principal, Mr. John Bunton, a very highly respected man. Mr. Bunton is always behind the scene to see that everything is going well. He has proven to be a stabilizing factor in our school.

Principal, Mr. Don Demsher and Vice Principal, Mr. John Bunton.

This year marks the beginning of a new era for the Shasta Union High School District. Dr. Joseph Appel became the Superintendent of the District after sixteen years of very able leadership of Mr. Richard Haake.

Dr. Appel familiarized himself with nearly every aspect of the District's operation soon after arriving last spring. Since that time, he has developed effective communication with all employees in the District. There have been several changes in procedure and a few in personnel. Of most importance is the confidence his leadership is receiving from staff, members of the Board of Trustees, as well as the community. We look forward to a long rewarding professional relationship with him.

Principal, Mr. Donald Demsher

Left to Right: Mrs. Linda Jeantet, Mrs. Connie Sunquist, Mrs. Diane Storm, Mrs. Carol Smith, Mrs. Malanie Wilburn, Mrs. Sandy Evanhoe, Mrs. Barbara Ooley.

SECRETARIES KEEP NOVA RUNNING SMOOTHLY

Mrs. Carol Smith shows us her usual smile.

Nova's secretaries could be considered the heart of the school. They're the ones who make sure Nova is running smoothly, or try to straighten it out when it isn't. The secretaries did a great job of it this year although they had their work cut out for them. They were friendly, patient, and above all helpful.

Mrs. Connie Sunquist asks Jeff Lycan, "Haven't you been to the dentist five times already this week?"

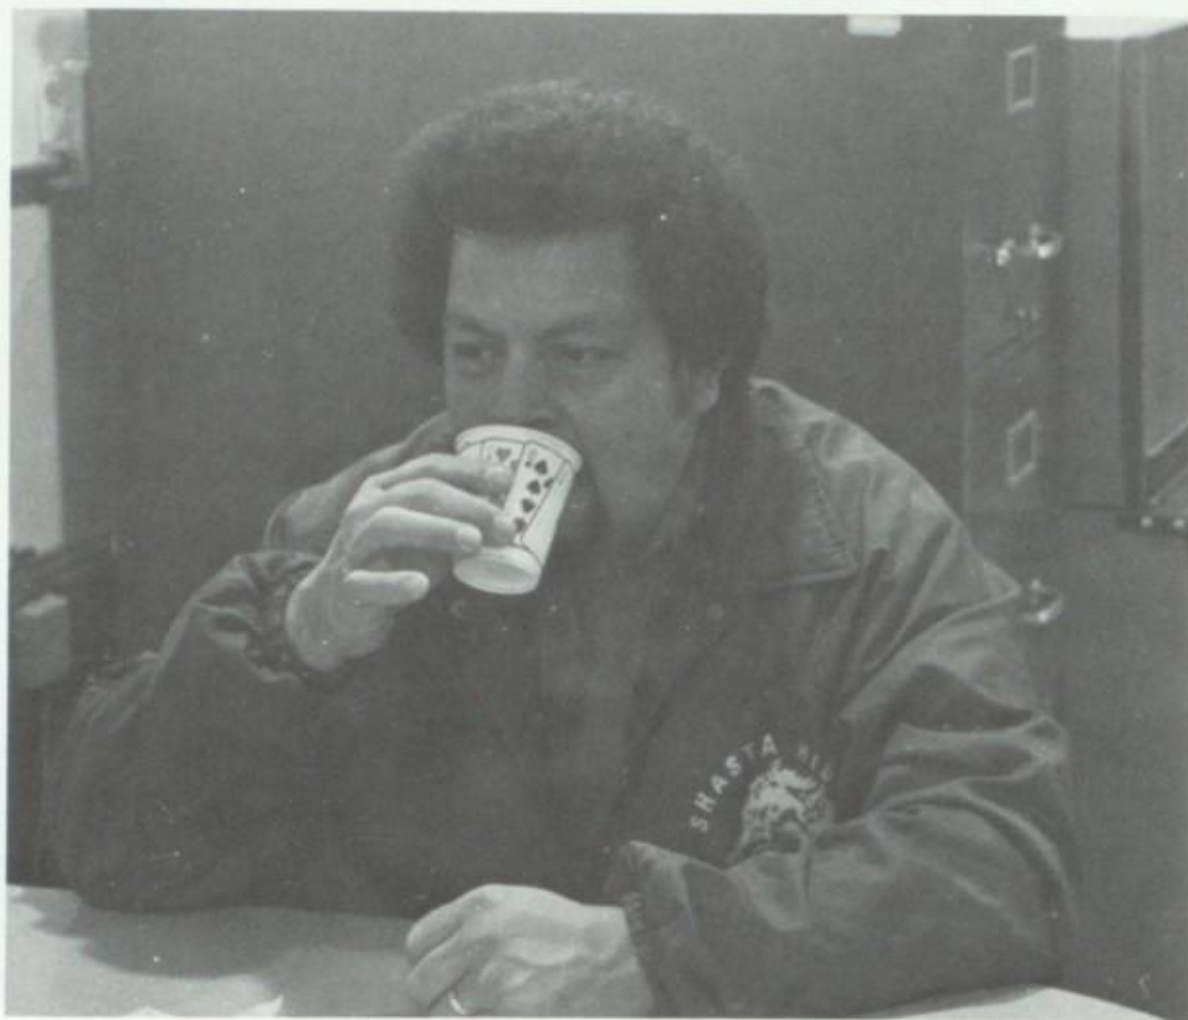

MAINTENANCE KEEPS CAMPUS CLEAN

Cleaning up after 1,222 messy ninth graders is not the easiest or most desirable job in the world, but our dedicated and hard-working maintenance crew performed their job well by making our campus one that we could enjoy. The five man day crew arrived at the school at the crack of dawn every day to open it up and turn on the lights and heaters. After school, the night crew had an even harder job. They had to get the school ready for the next day, and we know what a pain cleaning up after us must have been.

SERVING UP A SUPER SUPPER

Even though we do a lot of kidding about the food they serve at school, it isn't that bad. The cooks have to cook for more people than a mother does at home, so they do the best with what they are given.

This year the cafeteria started a salad bar. Last year's Y.A.C. should be given part credit for this. Many students eat at the salad bar which costs 75¢ for a small salad. The salad bar includes beets, sprouts, broccoli, carrots, croutons, cheese and turkey along with four different kinds of dressings.

HELPING INDIVIDUALS PAYS OFF

Instructional aides worked with Personal Growth, Driver's Ed, math and English students. The aides worked with students in whatever way would benefit the student the most. Most of the aides worked on a one to one basis with the student that needed instruction. Sometimes the aides corrected papers or recorded scores.

Most teachers feel that the best instructional aides in the district are right here at Nova High.

GOLD PUTS FORTH 24 KARAT EFFORT!

Gold had a tough season this year. Although they had very few wins, they played some outstanding games. In an interview with Coach Tim Oppezzo, he made these remarks: "Even though our record wasn't that great, we had some very good players. A few of the best were runningbacks, Darrin Holeman and Alan Fife and defensive lineman, Jeff Tanner. Also, quarterback Ken Shamburg combined with receiver Gary Walker were good for a lot of completed yardage and two touchdowns. They were supported by a host of athletes who contributed greatly to the team."

VIKINGS SAIL TO VICTORY

The Purple Vikings had a very successful season having not lost too many games. The Vikings started out their season with an 8-0 win over the White Warriors. WARRIORS STRIVE TO BE # 1

This year the Warriors shone with determination to be better than last year's Warriors. The offense was a sporadic group of guys. Jim Tomasin was the outstanding player on offense. He kept us in many of the games.

The defense was quite consistent. On defense, Bill Flagg and our defensive back-up did a great job.

The linemen performed very well; they had much more depth than in the past.

In an interview with Coach Crawford, he made these remarks, "We don't measure our success by the amount of games we've won or lost, but rather by how much we've enjoyed learning the game and working hard."

Coach Morgan and Coach Pasalacqua have been extremely valuable to our team with their coaching abilities. We had a great group of kids this year who really worked hard."

WEATHER OR NOT . . .

The Nova Cross Country Team did extremely well during the season. They improved vastly under Bruce Makinsen's skillful coaching and regular practices. The outstanding runner for the boys was Steve Scott, who was also the top J.V. runner in the league. For the girls, Colleen McNeilly and Sherry Faller were the outstanding runners. The boys' team did extremely well, and the girls, considering that they had to run varsity, also did quite well. Over all, for the Nova runners, the season went quite smoothly.

GOLDEN GIRLS

The Golden Girls had a very good season and a very good coach. Mrs. Drewek was this year's Gold volleyball coach. Mrs. Drewek said, "When the going gets tough, the tough get going," and her team did just that. They had a rough season, and their toughest game was with Yreka. The best player was Kristi Hess and the most improved was Laurel Kilbury. The Golden Girls really are Golden Girls.

NOVA DOUBLE FAULTS

Although this year's scores didn't favor Nova, the girls had a rewarding season. In addition to learning the basic rules and regulations, the girls gained a lot of experience. Their coach Mrs. Havlicek said the teams they were up against had had several years' experience in tennis.

WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD

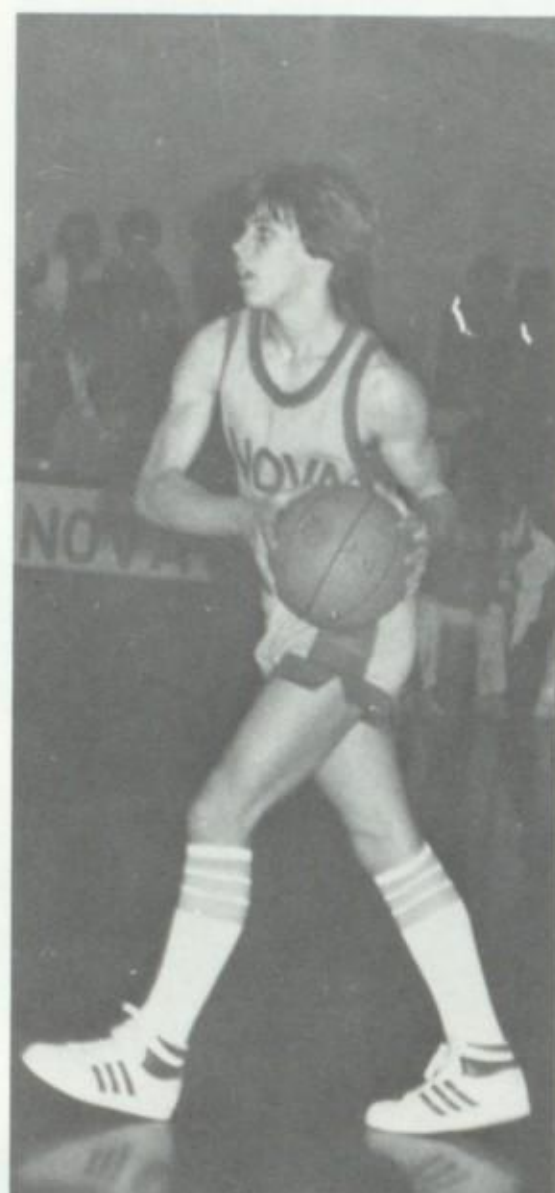

Gold started their season with a close game against Red Bluff. Mr. David Fraser said that he really enjoyed working with the team. Paul Asnicar and Brian Leedy were two of the players from the Gold team who made the All Stars. Gold ended their season with a good game against Anderson. Win or lose, the Gold Eagles put forth every ounce of effort they could, and had every reason to be proud of their team!

GOLD FINDS A CHALLENGE

The Gold Eagles had a challenging year. "The team was a lot better than the scores showed", said coach Mr. Matt Passalacqua, "we had some good hustlers." Lisa Mortensen was the most valuable player, and Linda Gill, the most improved. The game scores were often close, even though there were not many wins. "We didn't have a lot of height, so rebounds hurt us," said Mr. Passalacqua. The girls put in a lot of effort and deserve a hand!

PURPLE SHOOTS TO WIN

It was a rough season for the Purple Bobcats, as they won only three league games. They did not end up in last place however, since they trounced Yreka twice. The highlight of the season was when they defeated rival Nova Gold in a 42-37 thriller. Some of the outstanding players were Ken Shamburg, Nate Dickens, and Henry Townsend.

All of the players got along well with no complaints. Coach Becky Adamson stated, "They had real good team work, and made wise plays when in a tight situation." The three strongest players were Heather Martineau, Kristie Hess, and Melinda Scott.

The team worked hard and had an "excellent defense," as coach Becky Adamson put it.

The second game against White was under protest because of referee errors, but it was worked out. All in all the season was good, which made the team happy.

COMPETITIVE SPIRIT AND WINNING ATTITUDE

Nova White put up a good fight and did very well in keeping up with other teams. Their coach was Clay Erro; he is a P.E. teacher at Nova. He always cheered his team up when they were losing, and cheered them on when they were winning. People have said that they thought the team had a good chance at being the best team at Nova, and others have said they thought Mr. Erro was a great deal of the reason that the team performed so well. The team had a lot of things to say about Mr. Erro, but most of the comments were like this, "I think Coach is a real cool dude!" The whole team agreed that Mr. Erro is a great coach and a good friend. All in all the White Warrior team was wicked!

"I shoot just like a pro," says Jon Murray

LADY WARRIORS NET WINNING SEASON

Nova's girls' White wrapped up the season with a triumphant first place league standing. Chris Friesen was the top scorer with a total of 22 points. Chris was also chosen as most valuable player. When Coach Brad Fulton was asked who the most improved player was he replied that it was the team in general.

The lady Warriors started out the season with two loses but bounced back to a 7-2 league record standing. Managers Laurel Kilbury and Debbie Karpinen were extremely pleased with the Warriors record and felt that the girls put forth a wonderful effort.

TRACK TEAM, VERY ENTHUSIASTIC

The team was small the first week, but as the days progressed more students joined. The team's coaches were Mr. Makinson, Mr. Erro, and Mr. Conley. The coaches said the team was just great and very enthusiastic about track. There were several outstanding athletes. Steve Scott ran the 2 mile, Sean Brown ran the Hurdles, Jim Sanchez ran the 880 and the mile, Leslie Hobbs ran the Hurdles and the High Jump, Pat Ring threw the Shot Put, and Shelly Faller ran the 440 and 880. But most importantly, everyone had a lot of fun.

NOVA ALL-STARS SHOOT FOR SUCCESS

The Nova All-Star team took third place in the Lassen Invitational Basketball Tournament in Susanville this year. The team played on February 26 and 27, and beat Las Plumas with a 33-29 victory and Central Valley High School junior varsity with a 34-29 victory. Jim Tomasin made 37 points in the tournament. Other outstanding players were Paul Asnicar, Brian Leedy, Henry Townsend and Rob Wilding.

Mr. Erro and Henry Townsend fight for the ball.

John Haumann concentrates on passing the ball.

Wonder if Mark Gagnon made it!

Rob Wilding takes a breather from the game.

Nate Dickens plans a long pass.
